LOCAL BREVITIES.

Schocken keeps the best and cheapest groceries.

The Union Hotel is a first-class house in every respect.

Weyl's is the place to get a bargain in groceries.

The Union Hotel is a resort for families visiting Sonoma.

The Sonoma House is conducted as a first-class hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher.

The best of beef, mutton, pork, veal, sausages, etc., at Weyl's meat market.

Weyl's meat market is supplied with everything kept in a first-class butcher shop.

Visitors to Sonoma on business or pleasure will find the Sonoma House as conducted by Harry Fisher the hotel of Sonoma.

If you want the very best of wine, liquors or cigars go to the Union Hotel, and you will be politely served by Mr. A. A. Enke.

A nanny goat on the Anton Kiser ranch near this place recently gave birth to quadruplets. All four of the kids are alive and frisky.

Robt. A. Poppe, the newly appointed director of the Home for Feeble Minded Children, made his first official visit to that place last Tuesday.

The meals to be had at the Sonoma House, now kept by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher, are the best to be had in any hotel north of San Francisco.

The Union Hotel bar, under the supervision of A. A. Enke, will be supplied with the very best of wines, whiskeys and cigars to be had in the market.

For Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery and also everything kept in a general merchandise store go to Schocken's, north side Plaza, Sonoma.

Hall's Hair Renewer contains the natural food and color-matter for the hair and medicinal herbs for the scalp, curing grayness, baldness, dandruff and scalp sores.

August Herbst, formerly of this place, who robbed and deserted his wife some time ago is now believed to have gone to Europe with another woman and $5,000.

The Union Hotel dining rooms since the recent change of proprietorship, have undergone a change for the better. Under the supervision of Mrs. S. E. Jones the tables are all that could be desired by the most fastidious epicure.

Messrs. Cornelius & Yager will open a new meat market on Napa street, next door to the postoffice, next week. It is the intention of the gentlemen to make their establishment, which will be known as the Union Market, one of the best in Sonoma county.

One of the new and interesting features of the coming bazaar will be the book exhibit, where the many choice publications of the Congregational Sunday School Society may be seen and purchased. Christian Endeavor badges and other supplies will also be for sale.

We are glad to state that Joe Ryan, who was so severely injured by being thrown from a horse in this place a few months ago, and who was subsequently removed to his mother's home in Benicia, was able to pay a visit to Sonoma last Saturday and Sunday. Joe's friends in this valley are legion, all of whom were greatly pleased to welcome him back to his old home and to see that he is recovering so rapidly.

Gospel meetings have been held nightly during the past week at the M. E. Church in this place. The pastor Rev. Mr. Robbins has been in the pulpit denouncing the evils of the times, especially dancing, theatres and other silly amusements. So far he has made but few converts as the people of this valley have of late been attending political meetings, parties, etc.

Friend, the fourteen-year-old grandson of Chas. McHarvey of this place, ran away from home last week, but was finally located by Marshal Robin with friends in San Francisco, much to the relief of his mother. Master Friend traveled to Napa, thence to Santa Rosa and finally brought up at the metropolis. His reason for leaving home is a mystery to his relatives. His motive, no doubt, was a strong desire to see more of the world.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

A DRUNKEN ROW.

The "Terrible Swede" Assaults Three Blockmakers With an Axe.

On Sunday evening Adolph Lindblom, otherwise known as the "Terrible Swede," made a vicious assault with an axe on John and Jacob Nilson, Russian Fins, and Jim McGuffin. It appears that the four men, who are blockmakers in the employ of S. Schocken, had indulged freely in sour wine during the day and became beastly drunk. At the time of the assault the men were in the cabin of the Nilsons and were partaking freely of the ardent when suddenly Lindblom seized an axe and with the exclamation "that one Swede could kill a hundred Russians," he viciously attacked the Nilsons, striking right and left with the axe. He cleaned out the cabin in short order. Before the Nilsons could make their escape, however, he felled John Nilson senseless with a blow on the head with the blunt edge of the axe, making an ugly wound. He then turned his attention to Jacob Nilson who, while attempting to get out of his assailant's way, was struck in the back with the axe which only made a slight bruise, but greatly accelerated Jacob's speed in fleeing from the infuriated man. The Swede then turned upon McGuffin, who managed to make his escape unscathed.

On the witness stand, during the preliminary examination, McGuffin swore he had a narrow escape. "Yis, yer honor," said he, "if it had not been for the fleetness of my foot old have been kilt intirely."

Shortly after the assault the injured men appeared before Judge Cheney and swore out a warrant for the arrest of their assailant, who was subsequently taken into custody by officer Griffith.

On Monday a preliminary examination was held in Justice Cheney's Court and the "Terrible Swede" was held to answer before the Superior Court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with bonds fixed at $1000. Being unable to furnish the required bond he was lodged in jail at Santa Rosa.

BASALT BLOCKS.

Half a Million Shipped Within the Last Ninety Days and 500,000 More to Follow.

S. Schocken of this place has shipped during the past ninety days over the San Francisco & North Pacific Railway 500,000 basalt blocks to San Francisco. He has just secured another contract, which calls for another half million of blocks, which will be shipped over the same road without delay. To one contractor alone in San Francisco Mr. Schocken recently sold $20,000 worth of blocks. The railroad people are being taxed to their utmost limit to supply flat cars for hauling these blocks to San Francisco and frequently shipments are made by schooner via Embarcadero in order to fill large orders with the least possible delay.

Sonoma Valley at the Midwinter Fair.

E. K. Stevenot, Mineral Commissioner for Sonoma county, received this week a diploma from the committee of awards of the Midwinter Fair for the best exhibit of chrome iron ore, silicate of aluminum, clay tiling and basalt blocks. As Sonoma Valley is already the proud possessor of the First Premium awarded by the Mechanics' Institute Fair of 1889 for the best and most varied exhibit of agricultural products in competition with all the counties in the State, this latter award proves that this section is a valuable mineral as well as a noted agricultural section.

To the Voters of Sonoma Township.

It having been circulated that I do not care whether I am elected to the office of County School Superintendent or not and that I am in the fight simply to defeat Mrs. Martin, I take this method of denying the statement. I am as anxious to be elected as any of the other candidates and if successful will devote my entire time and energies toward carrying out the duties of the office.

E. W. DAVIS, Regular Republican Nominee for School Superintendent.

Prof. Arthur Lewellyn, lately from Chicago, but now residing at Kenwood, will sing one of the numbers at the concert on Tuesday evening, November 13. He is a musician of exceptional talent and ability. Miss Griswold of Malvern Hall will accompany him.

The Sonoma House, Harry Fisher proprietor, is a popular resort for commercial travelers.

THE REPUBLICANS OF SONOMA.

They Accord Hon. J. A. Barham and the County Nominees a Warm Welcome.

Somers B. Fulton, Nominee for County Clerk, Given a Grand Send Off.

The Republicans of Sonoma Township turned out en masse on Friday evening of last week to welcome the Hon. J. A. Barham, nominee for Congress, and the county candidates.

Under the direction of County Committeeman J. M. Cheney and the Republican ladies of Sonoma, Union Hall was handsomely decorated for the occasion, especially the stage, which was festooned with American flags, flowers and evergreens. Extending the full length of the stage was suspended the watch-word of the Republican party "Protection," and to the right of the stage facing the audience was another motto resting on an easel which read "Barham!" Both emblems were woven out of Sonoma Valley's choicest offerings of Flora.

In point of numbers the meeting exceeded that of any political gathering of the campaign that has taken place in Sonoma.

The meeting was presided over by Hon. R. A. Poppe, who introduced Hon. J. A. Barham, nominee for Congress, who was warmly welcomed and frequently applauded during the course of his address. Democrats as well as Republicans joining in the applause whenever he made a telling hit.

The county nominees were each presented to the audience in their turn by President Poppe, and Messrs. A. J. Atchinson, nominee for Auditor and Recorder, Sam I. Allen for Sheriff, Lyman Green for District Attorney, M. V. Vanderhoof for Assessor and Edward F. Woodward for County Treasurer were received with applause and showed that they were popular with their party.

When Somers B. Fulton, nominee for County Clerk, appeared before the audience he met with an ovation that was a surprise to him and his reception was almost equal to that accorded to Prof. A. C. Abshire at the Democratic meeting on the previous evening. At the conclusion of his remarks he was for a time enveloped in a shower of bouquets which came from all parts of the hall amid a storm of applause.

Hon. S. J. Duckworth, the principal speaker of the evening, followed the county candidates and spoke for one hour and a quarter and the way he dressed down Grover Cleveland, Hon. Jas. H. Budd, T. J. Geary and the Democratic party in general was a caution.

He made the most forcible speech that has been delivered in this town during the campaign. A large number of Democrats were present and it must truthfully be said they took their medicine with good grace. At the conclusion of Mr. Duckworth's address three cheers were given for the Republican ticket and three cheers for Hon. J. A. Barham, after which the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in until 12 o'clock.

Miss Ella Durant of Glen Ellen spent several days this week with Sonoma friends.

A cyclone is like three school girls walking abreast. It doesn't turn out for anything.

Mr. Matthew Watt of Embarcadero visited the metropolis on business several days this week.

Miss Bessie Knight has returned home after an absence of several weeks with friends in Alameda.

Misses Pauline Bates and Zoe Clark spent last Tuesday and Wednesday shopping in the metropolis.

The tongue is ungrateful. It complains more of poverty than all the other members, while it is the only one that always has a roof over it.

Geo. Breitenbach, the well-known and popular young harness dealer, visited San Francisco last Tuesday and purchased a new stock of goods for his store.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Knight and family will shortly move into the residence of the late Wm. Graves, where they will reside and look after the young orchard which surrounds this handsome home.

Sing a song of six pence, you fellow full of rye; with not a cent to bury you to-morrow, should you die. The keeper is in the bar room counting out his money; his wife is in the parlor with well-dressed sis and sonny. Your wife has gone out working and washing people's clothes, to pay for old rye whisky to color your red nose.

Mrs. Arterson and her son Andrew, formerly of this place, were victims of the terrible fire which occurred in Seattle last week in which sixteen lives were lost. Mrs. Arterson, while living in this place resided on Spain street and her son attended the Sonoma public school. Their horrible death is greatly lamented by their friends in this place.

The many friends of Rev. Father J. J. Sullivan, formerly pastor of St. Francis' Church at this place, will be pained to learn of his serious illness at his home in Alameda. The Rev. gentleman has been suffering from pneumonia and last Sunday the attending physician feared he would not survive throughout the night, but at last accounts he was slowly improving.

The personal property belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Robt. C. Johnson is soon to be sold at public auction in San Francisco. The property consists principally of a collection of superb diamonds, jewelry, paintings, bronze and marble statuary, richly carved Venetian art furniture, rare embroideries and handsome rugs. The above collection is said to be valued at $50,000.

Three Leading Scientists

Proclaim the Superior Value of ## Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Scientists are devoting closer attention to food products. Recent examinations of baking powders by Prof. Long, Dr. Haines, and Prof. Prescott, were made to determine which powder was the purest, highest in leavening strength, most efficient in service, and most economical in cost. They decide that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder excels in all the essentials of an ideal preparation for household use. They write:—

"Chicago, March 28th, 1894.

We have purchased in the open market cans of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and also of the other leading brands of baking powders, and have submitted them to chemical analysis. We find that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is a pure cream of tartar powder, that is has a considerably greater leavening strength than any of the other baking powders we have ever tested.

PROF. JOHN H. LONG, Northwestern University, Chicago.

DR. WALTER S. HAINES, Rush Medical College, Chicago.

PROF. ALBERT B. PRESCOTT, Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

The Official Records, Showing the Best Baking Powder.

The United States Government, after elaborate tests, reports the Royal Baking Powder a pure cream of tartar powder of greater leavening strength than any other.

—Bulletin 13, U. S. Ag. Dep., p. 599.

The Canadian Official Tests, recently made, show the Royal Baking Powder highest of all in leavening strength.

—Bulletin 10, p. 16, Inland Rev. Dep.

We cordially approve and recommend the Royal Baking Powder. It is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients, of the highest strength and character.

Hence, in practical use,

The Royal Baking Powder goes further, makes purer and more perfect food than any other.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis of Santa Rosa were in town last Sunday visiting relatives. Mr. Lewis is Postmaster of the above city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Clark and their two children will shortly leave for Southern California where Mr. Clark will establish himself in business.

When stung by a bee always remove the sting which is left in the wound and over it squeeze the juice of a red onion or apply a little hartshorn.

Death has claimed another of the pioneer mothers of Sonoma Valley. Mrs. Elizabeth Kearney died at her home near Sonoma last Saturday evening of heart failure superinduced by a complication of disorders. Although everything possible was done to arrest the inroads of the disease Mrs. Kearney continued to get worse until death relieved her of her sufferings. The deceased was well-known throughout Sonoma county and was noted for her many kind acts of charity. She was a devout member of St. Francis' Church. She was a native of Ireland where she was born fifty-seven years ago. Her funeral took place last Monday and was followed from her late residence to the Catholic Church by a large concourse of relatives and friends, who upon arriving at the church slowly and silently followed the remains into the sacred edifice where High Mass was celebrated, at which a number of priests, friends of the deceased, officiated. There was special singing by the choir and many beautiful floral offerings were sent by friends. After Mass had been celebrated the funeral cortege, which was one of the largest that has been seen in Sonoma for some time, wended its way to the Catholic Cemetery on Napa street where all that was mortal of this good woman was laid to rest.

Harry Fisher, proprietor of the Sonoma House, visited Petaluma last Tuesday.

The Catholic Fair which closed on Wednesday evening of last week after a successful run of seven days and nights was in every way satisfactory. A special entertainment was rendered nightly by our best local talent and together with the drawing of beautiful prizes and voting for the most popular young lady of the valley made a week of pleasure and merriment for the residents of Sonoma and vicinity.

The booths were all handsomely decorated and lighted which greatly added to the interior appearance of the large hall. The total receipts will be given out to-morrow in St. Francis' Church. The ladies having the Fair in charge deserve much credit for their untiring efforts towards making it so successful.

Mrs. Sherman, who resides near El Verano, is reported very ill.

Arrangements are being made by the Petaluma Dramatic Club with the Sonoma Valley Band to produce the play of "Hazel Kirk" in this place about the middle of the present month under the auspices of the Band.

Geo. W. Spencer of San Francisco, a former resident of this valley, was in town last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Spencer is thinking of returning to Sonoma some time in the near future and engaging in business. We feel sure that our people will give him their encouragement and patronage should he decide to locate among them.

KEEP A STIFF LOWER LIP.

It is the Telltale One, and the Upper Lip Can Take Care of Itself.

"I can't understand," said a young lady of observation, "why you men, who see so much and know so much, persist in the phrase, 'Keep a stiff upper lip.' You use it as a sort of picturesque synonym for firmness of purpose and demeanor, but it has no value as such. The upper lip is not the weak member of the two. It is the under lip that wants stiffening. The upper lip is practically expressionless. It usually lies flat on the teeth, it is nearly always covered with a mustache—I refer, of course, to the male upper lip—and in conversation, especially in correctly languid conversation, it does not move at all. Like the Chinese joss, it is a harmless creature and can be safely let alone.

"It is the nether lip that has to be watched and controlled. I can always tell when a man is going to propose to me by the way in which he wets his under lip and presses it against the upper lip for companionship and support, just the very things he is seeking for. And I can always tell if a man is lying by a peculiar fluctuation and pulsation in this same lower lip. He will look you right straight in the eye, grow fierce and drop his voice into his boots through the weight of his emotion, but if there is that twitch about the lower lip I don't believe him, and I've never been wrong yet. If a man feels deeply, I mean feels sorrow, not affects it, it is in the tremulousness of the under lip that he shows it. The sensitive man's lower lip is seldom still, and there is sometimes about it a positive curve of the chin. The point begins in the lower lip and is really confined to it, for the upper lip is only pushed out by pressure from below. You can't put with your upper lip alone.

"In fact, you can't assume or affect any expression with the upper lip alone. Just try it. Hold the lower lip firm with the finger and look in the glass there. The mouth has become simply a hole in the face, you see, and so far as the expressive character of the lip goes it is as if you had lost a feature.

"If you want to keep back a smile, it's the lower lip that you must look after. Weakness begins there, whether of character, health or age. It is not the weak upper lip that falls of down-fall. It is the drooping, pendulous lower lip that shows it. And let me tell you something, please, for the benefit of my sisters who have not had the advantage of the experience that I have. Tell them that whenever they see the lower lip of their male companions turn out and over thickly that it's a danger signal. It's the red flag of mischief, and they had better say goodby. Keep a stiff lower lip, young man."—New York Sun.

HE EMPHASIZED THE LIE.

As Told by the Sporty Man the Yarn, While Tail, Was Incomplete.

The boarders were sitting around the parlor. The landlady had just served one of her famous 6 o'clock dinners (35 cents apiece, or a quarter if you buy ten tickets at a time), and the partakers needed rest as much as anything unless it was penance.

The sporty young man, who had been there but a week, was telling a story about a friend of his who was in the theatrical business, advance agent or something of the kind. "It was this way," said the sporty boarder. "Jack always was quite a hand to play the horses, and that he was particularly lucky. He went out to the track with a $100 bill. He saw the card was an easy one, and he resolved to plug it. He picked a 6 to 1 shot in the first race, and it won. Then he went on, playing every race, and when the sport was over he had won just $15,000."

The soubrette opened her eyes and whistled. The ministerial looking man who sat over in the corner said, "Why don't you go on and finish the story?" "Finish the story?" asked the sporty boarder in surprise. "Why, what more is there to tell? What more is there to it?"

"Pshaw," said the ministerial looking man, "you know as well as I do that your friend hurried back to town and won $9,000 more before dark playing croquet."—Buffalo Express.

Mutilating Horses.

The United States Veterinary Medical association, at its thirty-first annual meeting, held in Philadelphia, adopted a resolution condemning the "docking" of horses' tails and calling attention to the fact that nature surely intended the tail as the animal's defense against the assaults of insects. There is nothing new in the announcement that the tail is a useful appendage, but those persons who are ever vigilant to avert cruelty to animals will be delighted to have the duly recorded support of such an authority as the Veterinary association. The practice of "docking" horses' tails is wholly indefensible. Some people try to justify it on the ground that it improves the horse's appearance. It does not. It simply spoils the good looks of any horse so operated upon.—Washington Star.

"The Conduct of Life."

Under this head Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote: "This is an estimable hint I owe to a few persons of fine manners that they make behavior the very first sign of force—behavior, not performance, or talent, or much less, wealth. While almost everybody has a supple, alert eye turned on events and things and other persons, a few natures are central and forever unfold, and these alone charm us. He whose word or deed you cannot predict, who answers you without any supplication in his eye, who draws his determination from within, that man rules."

London pays 42 per cent of the income tax of England and Wales, and its government and management cost about $11,000,000 a year.

Gladstone has A clear Head

WHY? Because he follows these rules: "Keep the bowels open." You cannot have a clear head and live to be ninety if you do the same thing. When the bowels fail to move during the day take on retiring two Smith's Small Bile Beans. Their action is so mild that you are not aware of it. All day your mind will be clear and cool. "Not a gripe in a barrel of them." Ask for small size. Take no substitute for SMITH'S.
